

Too Busy to Volunteer?

Before you say "I just don't have time" . .

Here are the top benefits to volunteering:

1. Boosts YOUR self esteem
2. Expands YOUR connections
3. Contributes to YOUR longer life
4. Combats YOUR stress
5. Gives a good example to others
6. Teaches YOU new skills
7. Perhaps the most important benefit is that you are adding to the Well Being of Others

How about that? The top benefits are all about the volunteer and not the organization!

We at Michael Harper Real Estate are enjoying these benefits while we contribute to our community:

Michael, with his Therapy Dog "Lincoln", visit patients, residents, and guests at the Hospital, Skilled Nursing Facility, and Adult Day Care Center in Woodland Park. You should see their faces light up!

Tamara volunteers with young families at her church.

Mike raises money for all of the great things Rotary Club does.

Traci volunteers at one of the elementary schools, reading to children.

Bottom Line

Volunteering benefits US as much as it does the organization!
